

Columbus Facilities Available For Holiday Tree Disposal

After the Holidays, the City of Columbus will provide free Holiday tree drop-off locations on four consecutive Saturdays, January 2 through January 23, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The drop-off locations at three City of Columbus Division of Refuse Collection facilities will be the same each Saturday. In addition, Columbus residents can also drop-off their Holiday trees free-of-charge at nine on-going yard waste drop-off sites announced in April.

The three Saturday-only free Holiday tree drop-off locations are:

- Division of Refuse Collection, 4260 Morse Road
- Division of Refuse Collection, 2100 Alum Creek Drive
- Division of Refuse Collection, 1550 Georgesville Road

Holiday trees at these locations will be accepted only 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on the designated four consecutive Saturdays in January. Holiday tree drop-off reminders include:

- Only Holiday trees without lights, ornaments, hooks, tinsel and other decorations will be accepted
- Holiday tree stands will not be accepted
- Do not place Holiday trees in tree bags; trees in tree bags will not be accepted
- Trees taller than five feet must be cut in half
- No trash or other materials will be accepted at the Holiday tree collection locations

Columbus residents can also dispose of their Holiday trees at any one of nine free yard waste drop-off locations announced in April:

- Com-Til, the City's compost facility: 7000 Jackson Pike, Columbus (614) 645-3152
- Kurtz Bros. and Mulch Manufacturing Inc.: Residents may be asked to show proof that they are a Columbus or Franklin County resident.
